I was mistaken dear Mary - There is no occasion for your coming - Indeed it will not be convenient at all - I have a good number - also - Pray include me with love to have your own.

38 Reeddale Road

Milton, Mass. June 22/4

My dear Cousin Anne -

The card from Alphonsine came on Saturday. I shall be very glad to visit you again for a few days. I now plan to take a train that gets to Plymouth about twelve o'clock tomorrow Tuesday. If it is not convenient for any one to meet me I can take the cars perfectly well. You may not get this note in time for me to be met. I am planning to stay until Friday.

I feel that I can hardly stay away longer unless especially needed.

With much love, and many thank for your note, from your affectionate cousin

Mary Adams Breck.
Hope the scintia is better.
